It is bona fide, every bit of it; and I have added a note which you can insert if you suspect that your own incredulity may be felt by others. I have added a page also to Garibaldi. It is, to my mind, so essential to a right reading of the present position of Italy to place briefly the whole incident before the reader, that I think it now will display events as they have been, as they might have been, and as they are. To comply with your wish to return proof by post, I have, I fear, corrected laxly; but you will, I know, look to my shortcomings. I suspect Serjeant Brownlows reminiscences would make an amusing review. If you think so, send it to me, and Ill try. My wife is again very ill, a relapsed of the lung, and I am dreary. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
