Reviews

It is fantastic and great. It is written in easy words and phrases instead of confusing. I am just delighted to explain how this is actually the best book I have read through during my individual life and might be the finest publication for ever.

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This is a story about love and adventure and the love of adventure. It's a story about the dedication people can have for each other and for their belief in themselves and their partners and even for people they have never known. It's a story of unselfish sacrifice of the things that people can hold closest to their hearts for the benefit of others. The year is 1910 and the story begins with an expedition being led by Henry Fitz-Stuart, a 38 year old English explorer, along with his young Inca partner, Cocohuay or Coco as she is commonly known, carrying out a dig around the ruins of the ancient Inca city of Machu Picchu, officially in order to protect and safeguard the artefacts from an impending and dubious expedition due to take place the following year. Unofficially, they are also trying to discover the viability in the belief of the Golden Staff of the Inca that Sinchi Roca allegedly carried when the Inca nation was founded. If it exists then it must be protected at all cost from the impending foreign expedition, the leader of which has the Quistas, descendants of the Conquistadors, as allies. Along with them are Henry's brother, Courtney and his Inca partner Illapa a conservationist and archaeologist. Also with them is Pach the infant son of Henry and Coco. The expedition is plagued with Quista spies determined to take the Golden Staff for themselves. The staff is found but hidden again before the lives of Henry and Coco are lost to the Quistas but not before Courtney and Illapa escape with Pach. Ten years later Pach is a twelve year...
