Description Sarah uses her many life experiences to explore the human psyche. Sarah s love of words and the poignant pictures they evoke shine through in many of her pieces of work. Although many of the subjects are of a serious nature her profound sense of humour and her understanding of the absurdity of life are self evident. This book will appeal to a wide audience, each picking out a particular poem that communicates to them as an individual. Sarah s use of words to paint mind pictures, such as two little shoes, where she uses that as a symbolism of loss, will catch the imagination that perhaps visual art some times can not. About the Author Sarah then trained and worked as a nurse doing stints at General, Psychiatric and Mentally Handicap hospitals. Sarah was a student nurse in a psychiatric hospital in Gloucester when she became pregnant with her oldest son Jonathan. The father was not in a position to marry her though he would have liked too. So she found herself in a mother and baby home in Bristol where Jonathan was born at South Meads hospital. Sarah then took a live in nursing job at Bridgwater Somerset where she met Brian Cavill, the man who was to become her husband. They married in Jan 1967. Sarah had a happy 6 months when in June 1967 Jonathan contracted T.B. Meningitis he was in a coma for 6 weeks and was badly brain damaged. Sarah and Brian took him home and looked after him as best they could, while Jonathan was in a coma his sister Angela was born. After Sarah s fourth and last child...
