The movement to-night took place gradually and steadily, nor was there so much of that rush and confusion which one might expect to see, where such a mighty change was taking place. It seemed, however, to create a feeling of excitement, not only in us, but in the birds; for the Geese on the opposite shores of the river, the Long-tailed Ducks, Divers, and other birds seemed to make more clamoring than usual, as if joyous at the signs of approaching Summer. A single Long-tailed Skua (Stereorarius parnsiticus) went up the river to-night, and we observed a solitary Swallow hawking round the house at Gulholmen, evidently just arrived. June 11th. Most of the ice had gone out while we slept, and this morning we had fine warm Summer weather. On the fells to-day we observed pairs of Snow Buntings (Pleetrophanes nimiris) flitting merrily...
