Have you ever had any experience upon the stage A little, answered Carrie. I have taken part in amateur performances. She thought she had to make some sort of showing in order to retain his interest. Never studied for the stage he said, putting on an air intended as much to impress his friends with his discretion as Carrie. No, sir. Well, I dont know, he answered, tipping lazily back in his chair while she stood before him. What makes you want to get on the stage She felt abashed at the mans daring, but could only smile in answer to his engaging smirk, and say: I need to make a living. Oh, he answered, rather taken by her trim appearance, and feeling as if he might scrape up an acquaintance with her. Thats a good reason, isnt it Well, Chicago is not a good place for what you want to do. You ought to be in New York. Theres more chance there. You could hardly expect to get started out here. Carrie smiled genially, grateful that he should condescend to advise her even so much. He noticed the smile, and put a slightly different construction on it. He thought he saw an easy chance for a little flirtation. Sit down, he said, pulling a chair forward from the side of his desk and dropping his voice so that the two men in the room should not hear. Those two gave each other the suggestion of a wink. Well, Ill be going, Barney, said one, breaking away and so addressing...
