We all encounter people in our lives that are difficult to love. A lot of them we have to set limits on. Some we have to love them from a distance. Sometimes they can really rub us the wrong way and that could bring about hurt or harm to them as well as ourselves thru actions and even words spoken that can't be taken back but to give in to these things would not be of God. What is God's way? Love, on them. Pray for them. Turn that enemy into a friend. One of our great presidents, Lincoln once said, I destroy my enemies when I make them my friends. This also reflects Jesus teaching on the sermon on the mount. Not everybody will respond to this kind of action. You can plant a seed and pray for them and watch God work in their lives. Who knows. Your enemy could eventually become your friend! Who in your life is hard to love? You know what is important to remember is the reason for what we do as followers of Jesus. If we forget that, then we become just like the disciples when they started trying to figure out who was more important. This started anger and division among them just like today. Some people think that what they do is more important than the next, but that is not so. We all are important to God in our own way. We serve in different areas because all of our paths and journeys are different. We all serve one God. Amen. Look at Jesus. He didn't come to be served. He came to serve...
