Faber & Faber. 1 Paperback(s), 2005. soft. Book Condition: New. A self-educated poet from the Scottish Borders town of Ettrick, James Hogg (1770-1835) was one of the most remarkable literary figures of pre-Victorian Scotland. He was dogged by debt throughout his career and occasionally lampooned as "the Ettrick Shepherd" for his coarse manner, but his novels particularly The Confessions of a Justified Sinner and other writings were popular in his time and have since been rediscovered as singularly original and flavorful works....
